Employee Spotlight:

I am Gwenn Neville and am delighted to be on the Goddard Library staff and part of the college community. My family and I moved to Rochester four years ago from Champaign, Illinois where I worked for a community college as a reference librarian. Most of my professional career has been in academic libraries. I enjoy working with students of all ages and backgrounds. I have learned a lot from the students I have worked with over the years. One of my goals is to encourage students to be life-long users of libraries.

My husband and I have one daughter, a junior at Century High School. We also have two wonderful cats. In my very spare time I like to go shopping and I'm an avid reader.

Do not hesitate to stop by the Reference Desk and ask for assistance; that's what I'm here for and what I love to do!

Hello! My name is Diane Pollock and I'm very happy to be here as a librarian for the 2007-2008 school year. Having lived in Rochester for seventeen years, I'm very aware of the strong presence the college has in the community and I am delighted to be a contributor.

After a couple of decades in a family retail business, I returned to school and have been a librarian for the last several years. My husband and I have three children and an eleven year-old lab mix dog. Only the dog remains, as our last child is in college (I'm both happy and sad about that!). I enjoy camping, fishing, reading and getting my exercise by playing DDR.

Please stop by and introduce yourself. Let me know what I can do to help make this a terrific year for all of the RCTC and WSU students!

My name is Craig Whetten and I am happy to be here at the Goddard Library. I have been in Rochester for just over a year and really love southern Minnesota. As a new librarian, I hope to make a difference in how patrons perceive and use the library. This should be every student's second home, a place that they can come to and feel comfortable about fulfilling their information needs. I just graduated from my master’s program in August and I was a 100% online student. Hopefully, I can use those experiences to enable our distance students to achieve more while away from campus. Thanks for visiting Goddard Library—I hope your stay was rewarding. Please, come again.
Featured Resource: The Reading Lounge

The Reading Lounge, located on the second floor of the library is a relaxing place to spend some time between classes or at the end of a busy day. The lounge houses current issues of our most popular periodicals from fashion magazines and business publications to professional journals. Some of the library’s newest books are also displayed and available for your perusal. Current issues of newspapers are also housed in the Reading Lounge. The Christian Science Monitor, Pioneer Press, StarTribune, New York Times and Wall Street Journal are among the titles available.

Please stop in, relax and explore the Goddard Library Reading Lounge!

Endnote: All current UCR students, faculty and staff may access any of the library’s online resources remotely. You will need the barcode on the back of your UCR student/staff ID card. If you do not have an ID card yet, you may obtain one at the library’s circulation desk.

You will also need to configure your internet browser to allow remote access to the Goddard Library resources. Instructions for remote access are on the library homepage by clicking on the “Remote Access Information” link or by opening the following link: http://www.roch.edu/library/proxy.php. Simply follow the instructions.
